and centre in this string of wild and wonderful stories."

Hot.103 Radio, Winnipeg

captivating... weaving together stories and poetry into a flow of consciousness that was as enthralling and entertaining as it was funny... a tour de force."

Arts in Leicestershire

Edmonton Journal, Alberta ★★★★★

"Combines the puerile and the heartfelt with masterful charm... a hysterical and surprisingly poignant portrait of the kid in all of us."

The Visitorium, Victoria

"Intersperses his comedy with droll story-poems that are so funny and conversational that you're only barely aware they're in rhyme; but Gee has another talent, and it's not one you often see in stand-up. It's compassion... Gee might be a smart-ass. But his kind of smart-ass is in all too short supply."

Orlandotheatre.com

"You hand over some money to watch a guy on an empty stage talk for an hour. And it's fabulous... laced cleverly between these outrageous memories is a pertinent social commentary... Gee's mastery of engagement lies in the details, of which there are never too many."

Saskatoon StarPhoenix

"Thoughtful, funny observations and wicked storytelling... a funny, sharp-eyed glimpse into the most awkward stage of life."

Calgary Herald

"His always-hilarious monologues will leave you wishing you weren't too old for a good game of tag. You'll want to plan ahead to make sure you get a spot for this one."

Monday Magazine, Victoria

"Goes by so quickly you'll be taken aback when the proverbial curtain falls... if you can get a ticket, which might be tough judging by the size of the crowd when I was there, SmartArse is definitely a show worth catching."
